Candidates Stump The County

England Under War Time Power

MANY DELAYS IN IMPROVEMENT ON HIGHWAY TO GREENSBURG

Candidates Greeted by Big Crowd

The national Republican campaign is taking a strong hold in Westmoreland county under the leadership of E. A. Cremer, county chairman and through his efforts and party leaders, many meetings have been planned. Derry was the scene of an enthusiastic meeting this week which was attended by fully 1,500 people and great enthusiasm was expressed for the success of the Republican ticket.

Dorsey Yealey, Derry banker, presided and addresses were made by Adam Wyant, Republican candidate for Congress; Former District Attorney W. T Dom and Thomas M. Whiteman, editor of the Latrobe Bulletin and candidate for legislature in the first district.

Mr. Wyant was quite enthusiastically received by the voters of Derry. He delivered a strong address and was liberally applauded when he expressed his views on a number of the live issues of the campaign that are stirring the people from coast to coast. Col. Dom spoke on the League of Nations and was many times interrupted by great applause.

While the meeting continued at Derry Candidate Wyant was whizzed in an automobile to New Derry, farther up the ridge and there he delivered an address to a smaller gathering, but one which was equal in enthusiasm to the one at Derry.

Among other things said by Wyant in his address at Derry was the following:

"I believe that no class of labor has imposed upon it graver responsibility that that imposed upon railroad employees and that all employes should receive compensation commensurate with that responsibility and the hazard of their employment, and if elected to congress I will use my influence to see that they are so rewarded.

"I am satisfied that from all indications there will be a landslide to Republicanism and I propose to do my part in redeeming the twenty-second congressional district from the misrule of democracy. Derry, one of the strongest Republican strongholds in Westmoreland county, cannot afford to be found in the ranks of Democracy and this large and enthusiastic audience satisfies me that with other municipalities it will return the usual Republican majority."

Farewell Surprise

A farewell surprise was tendered Mr. Lloyd Kelly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Learnard on Summit avenue on Wednesday evening The surprise came to Mr. Kelly as he was about to spend the evening with friends at the Learnard home, where guests to the number of thirty-eight had assembled The evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour the guests were ushered into the dining room where a delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Ed. Learnard and Mrs. Hiram Learnard, and at which time Mr. George Cooper in his most capable manner presented Mr. Kelly with a handsome traveling bag on behalf of the friends who had gathered for the occasion. Mr. Kelly made his home with the Learnards while in Monessen. He was employed by the Potter McCune Co. and is leaving to accept a position in Morgantown, W. Va. With deepest regrets for Mr. Kelly leaving and wishing him success in his new location, the guests departed for their homes at a late hour. Those present were: Mrs. Richard Teeters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shawley, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Teeters, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, Mr and Mrs. Ed. Lewis, a former member of the club, who is visiting in Monessen, was the guest of the club. A musical and literary program was enjoyed and a dainty lunch served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W O. Williams a week from next Tuesday.

A Circle was recently organized at Donora with ninety members and a circle will also be organized at Charleroi and Monongahela.

Fatal Auto Accident

A head-on collision of two automobiles in which one person was killed and three injured occurred on the Pleasant Unity and Mount Pleasant brick road in front of the John J. Brechbill farm, near Calumet, about 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

William Grigor, the 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Griger of Trauger, employed as driver of a delivery truck for the H. C. Frick supply store at United, together with his younger sister and another little boy, were driving in a Ford car to United, when the accident occurred.

Charles Barr, of United, employed at the P. R. R. freight station at Trauger, was driving toward Trauger, also in a Ford car.

The heavy fog, prevented either driver from noting the approach of the other car and both machines were in the middle of the road when the collision happened.

Griger was thrown from the car and injured so badly that he died a few minutes later. His skull was fractured and his neck broken. The girl and boy who were in the machine with him were badly bruised and cut, while Barr, the driver of the other car, was also quite seriously injured.

Both machines were totally wrecked.

Evidence in Sewer

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 22.-City sewers are clogged with "mash" thrown in by moonshine whiskey makers. Federal inspectors are following the "underground trail" in an effort to locate the stills.

EMERGENCY BILL WILL GIVE GOVERNMENT RIGHT TO USE MILITARY FORCE

By WEBB MSLLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 22---An emergency bill giving the government war-time powers with the right to use military forces for any purpose will be introduced in the British parliament for passage Monday.

The bill, drafted to meet the threatened general strike in support of British miners, will give the government power to ration and control all resources.

The bill was said to have been drafted, ready for presentation and immediate passage Monday. It was assumed introduction was delayed until Monday to permit resumption of negotiations, if the way should be opened before the expiration of ultimatum served on the government.

It was stated semi-officially that the government fears it will be impossible to meet the terms of railway and transport workers in time to permit them to cancel their strike arrangements. The railway men have issued orders for a strike Sunday midnight unless countermanded. The transport men will make no strike arrangements until next week.

The transporters, acting alone, would be compelled to take individual ballots, but they may be saved that delay if an executive meeting of the trade union congress is called as threatened. The congress's parliamentary committee has announced the executive meeting will be called if the government does not resume negotiations with the miners before Friday midnight.

Covenant of League of Nations Full of Perils to the Republic

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.--While nearly every citizen has heard much about Article X of the Wilson League of Nations, how many have read the whole text of "The Covenant of the League of Nations," as proposed by President Wilson and endorsed by Governor Cox?

Most of the opposition to the League has come from Article X. This Article reads: "The members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing independence of all members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

Because of the Senate debates on the League, which revolved principally around Article X, this article of the League is well understood by the electorate. The voters know that if the United States were to enter the League, as proposed by President Wilson and Governor Cox, this country could be called upon at any time by a Council of foreigners, sitting at Geneva, Switzerland, to send American armies and navies to protect the territory of any member of the League, whether or not the United States was interested in the quarrel.

But how many know that "The Covenant of the League of Nations, contains many other Articles equally full of peril to the independence, safety and welfare of our Republic? Any citizen who will read the whole Covenant will discover the following:

Article I says that the Signatories "Shall accede without reservations of the League, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armanents." This would limit the armed forces of the United States any time at the orders of the League. What American favors that?

Article III says the League may deal with any matter effecting the peace of the world. In a dispute between Japan and the United States over the California immigration question, which threatened, war the League could judge between the yellow hordes and the white men of the Pacific coast, if the United States were a member. Does any American want that?

Article VIII provides that when arguments are limited they cannot be increased without authority of the League. If the armed forces of the United States, as a member of the League, were reduced to a small National Guard and a few gunboats, and war threatened with Japan the United States could not increase its army and navy without the concurrence of the League Will any patriotic American agree to such a suicidal National policy?

Article XI provides that in event of threatened war the League can take steps to "safeguard the peace of nations." This would give the League absolute authority, if the United States belonged to it, to interfere in any dispute between the United States and any other nation. In such an event this country would have to accept intervention and judgment of the League, or be chastised by the League's armed forces, as provided in Article XVI.

Article XVI says that if any member disregards the orders of the League or goes to war without authority of the League all the other League members will immediately themselves make war on the member who disobeys the League, and will boycott the offending member.

Article XII and XIII would force the United States, were it a member to submit any international dispute to the League for settlement. There are some things the United States can submit only to the arbitration of the cannon---such as the Monroe Doctrine and the right to say who shall and who shall not enter this country as immigrants.

Article XXI says: "Nothing in this Covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international engagements, such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe Doctrine, for securing the maintenance of peace." Could anything be more vague than this reference to the Monroe Doctrine, which we must maintain if necessary with arms, if the Western hemisphere is to remain the home of free institutions and republican governments?

It is not generally known in this country that Denmark, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and Spain, though invited to join the League, have failed to do so. Neither has the Argentine Republic, Chile, Colombia, Paraguay, Salvador or Venezuela. It is a safe bet that the United States will never join such a League.

Discharged Yesterday

Having recovered from the effects of two poison tablets, swallowed last Tuesday evening, it is said, while riding in an automobile on South Eighteenth street, Margaret Page, of 939 Schoonmaker avenue this city, was released from the Southside, Pittsburg hospital yesterday afternoon and allowed to go home. A forfeit of $50 was posted at the South Thirteenth street police station for her appearance at a hearing this morning.

Evanston, Ill., Oct. 22---Statistics show this city to be the most pious in the United States. One out of every two persons goes to church.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 22.---Grand Rapids W. C. T. U., in joint annual session with the Kent county W. C. T. U. adopted resolutions condemning the "devil's communion." This, they said, was hard cider, moonshine whiskey and near beer concoctions.

Wednesday the season for shooting squirrel and pheasant in the state of Pennsylvania opened, and many hunters from this section have gone to the mountains.

Relatives Claim Body

The dead body of William Lowe, the Belle Vernon glass worker, is at the Melenyzer morgue at that place. Word has been received from a brother in Gass City, Indiana, who will arrive to claim the body and make shipment to the home of his parents. The cause of the tragedy is unknown. Lowe left no message to the world that gives the slightest reason for the rash act. The suicide was committed in a very peculiar way. He tied two pieces of rope together, made a noose and after throwing the end over the door hinge, he slipped his head through the noose and by holding his feet off the floor he was able to strangle himself. It is believed he was dead for several hours before the body was found by members of the Peden family where he roomed. The body has been ordered prepared for burial.

The owners' drivers' automobile license of Dr. J. G. Galbraith of Waynesburg has been revoked by State Highway Commissioner Lewis S. Sadler, following Dr. Galbraith's failure to attend a hearing. The department was advised by Burgess P. H Meighen of Waynesburg that Dr. Galbraith had violated the automobile laws.

Coal Operator Dead

J. Howard Patton, well known coal and coke man, died yesterday in his home in Greensburg. He had been in poor health for some months, but upon his recent return from a Pittsburgh hospital, his condition was thought improved. Complete recovery was expected until a few days before his death. Mr Patton was born in Huntingdon county, July 29, 1851 There he engaged in the coal and coke business. He organized the Claridge Coal company and directed its operations 20 years. Mr. Patton was interested in many other concerns. At the time of his death he was president of the Howard Gas Coal company.

He was a member of the Lutheran church, the Masons, and other organizations, including the Sons of American Revolution and the American Club. He was also a director of the Westmoreland hospital Besides his widow Mrs Jessie R. Patton, he leaves a son, Howard C. Patton.

Greensburg, Oct 21---Charles Griger, 18 years old, of Trauger, was killed and Charles Bauer, 18 years old of Trauger, was injured seriously today when automobiles driven by the young men collided in Trauger. The drivers were unable to see each other in the dense fog

Contractors Finish Work Next Year

State Highway route No. 118, now being permanently improved between West Newton and Greensburg will, when completed, be one of the most substantial arteries of travel in this end of the state, as well as one of the fewest grades. The road traverses a most beautiful country, and is the connecting link between the industrial region of the Monongahela and Yough valleys and the county seat. While there have been many delays since the work of improvement began, over two years ago, the greater portion of the road is now completed. However, final completion cannot be made until next year.

It is the pride of the Highway Department and those directly connected with the work, that sharp curves and heavy grades have been eliminated as far as possible. This has been done with the double purpose of making the road safe and shorter.

In getting through the borough of Madison engineers have met an obstacle which has delayed progress in that immediate sector, namely, opposition of the people of that town to the route finally adopted. The route through this town as it now stands, is shorter than the old and much more commendable owing to its easy grades.

Last week State Highway Commissioner Lewis A. Sadler, Chief Engineer W. D. Ulrich, Construction Engineer S. W. Jackson and District Engineer W. D. Myers, made a trip of inspection over the route, with the view chiefly of looking into the feasibility of a change at Madison. The Highway officials are concerned first in the construction of good roads and in accomplishing this use their expert knowledge for the benefit of the greatest number of people. Rightly so, they play no favorites, and experience has shown the Department to be conducted impartially, as far as individuals are concerned.

After a careful survey of the situation at Madison, the inspecting officials announced that they could see no advantage in changing the route from the original plans as relate to Madison.

From this edict it appears that it would be the part of wisdom for the people of this borough to approve the route and and enter into the helpful enterprise of having this much needed highway completed at the earliest possible date. It appears that the ultimatum of the Department on this case is final.

Moose Smoker

The semi-monthly smoker will again be held on Saturday, Oct. 23, as promised by the local order of Moose. On this occasion, Young Borland of McKeesport will show his wares against young Johnson of Latrobe. Both boys are considered exceptional performers at their respective weights. While they are the main bouters on the program, many thrills may be expected from the other contestants, four boxing bouts being scheduled. Vocal entertainers, vaudeville and other amusing stunts will precede the regular program. A. H. Logan, Supervisor of the organizing forces for the Loyal Order of Moose, will be on hand to expound and define Mooseheart. As is customary, all members are earnestly requested to be present and bring their friends. This is entirely free, and a large crowd is sure to be present. Digger Stanley will referee all bouts.

Fugitives Cornered

(By United Press)

Concord, N. H., Oct. 22.---Two desperate men, escaped convicts from Sing Sing prison, were believed to be at bay today in the woods near Warner, N. H.

A great human noose, composed of scores of armed farmers, deputies and constables, began drawing in on the suspects at dawn.

Two men answering the descriptions of George Stivers and Marcus Bassett, the escaped prisoners, abandoned a motor car near Warner yesterday when hte road was barred by officers on the lookout for the fugitives. When they saw the armed men in the road ahead of them the two men in the car brought it to a quick stop, jumped out, and dodged into the woods. The machine was identified as one which had been stolen from an undertaker.

The alarm was sent out and soon scores of volunteers were on the scene and sentries were posted all around the wooded area where the fugitives were believed to have taken refuge.

The plan was to keep the prisoners slipping through this human noose until daylight when the manhunters could close in from all sides. All night they kept in touch with one another by signaling with flashlights. Several times members of the posse reported they had seen the fugitives, dodging behind trees, and on each occasion several shots were fired but no damage was done.

Sheriff George A. Wooster is in charge of the posse, having established headquarters in a farm house near Mink Mountain, where the fugitives are believed surrounded

So far as known, Stivers and Bassett have but one revolver between them, and they are supposed to have very few cartridges. However, the members of the posse are taking no chances.

Assist in Health Work

Through the generosity of the Board of Directors of the Westmoreland hospital, two finely equipped rooms have been set aside for the public health clinic conducted by the State Department of Health. This clinic will be in charge of the County Medical Director, Dr. James Ford Trimble, assisted by Dr. J. A. Anderson. Clinic days are: General public health and tuberculosis clinic, conducted by Dr. Trimble, Tuesday afternoon 2 to 5; Genitro-Urinary clinic conducted by Dr. J. A. Anderson for men, Monday from 5 to 6 p. m., and for women on Friday, 2 to 4 p. m.

The nurse in charge of the clinic will be Miss Margaret G. Flynn who returns to Westmoreland county after an absence of two years. In addition to being a graduate of the Pennsylvania School for Social Service, she was director of Home Service under the American Red Cross in the United States Public Health Hospital at Markleton, Pa., did general health work under the State Department, part of the time being station at the Medico-Chi Hospital in Philadelphia, and during the strenuous days of the flu epidemic in 1918, was sent by the Harrisburg office to Westmoreland county, where for six weeks she worked with one other state nurse at Seward. Here no hospital facilities were available, the two local physicians were obliged to share their time with neighboring towns, but two hundred cases of flu were looked after by these two nurses so effectively that all but six patients recovered. Later she was granted a leave of absence by the State Department to act as Educational Secretary for the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society at Monongahela, where a survey of tuberculosis was made.

In addition to assisting at the State clinics, Miss Flynn will do supervisory health work all over the county, stimulating the existing private organizations to greater activity and working with them for a better coordination of health activities in Westmoreland county.

WOULD SELL AT THAT PRICE

Broker Declined to Wait for Any Further Advance in Quotations on Prepared Foods.

A prominent curb broker, wishing to make his lunch period as brief as possible, forsook his accustomed restaurant, a very exclusive place, for a "trust system" buffet.

Glancing up at the price board, he noted "Pot Roast Beef with Corn Muffins, 30 cents," which he ordered. As he "self served" himself to a vacant place at one of the tables, he again turned his gaze to the board, where he noticed an attendant was now doing some sleight-of hand work.

With much astonishment he beheld the 30, denoting the price of "P. R. B. with C. M. complete" dexterously changed to a 35. When he had sufficiently recovered from the shock, with plate of victuals in hand, he approached the food trader, and inquiringly inquired as to the cause of the sudden change in price.

"Why, I bought this hardly three minutes ago" he protested, "when it was quoted 30."

The lunch room proprietor smartly answered, "I know, but the asked price is now 35."

"Well," shot back the broker, "I suppose there's every indication of a further rise, but I guess I'll get my now. You can sell this for me at that price and keep your commission out of the proceeds."—Wall Street Journal.

Landed Freak Fish.

A weird sea monster bloodcurdling into the net of a San Diego (Cal.) fisherman not long ago. On being pulled into the fishing smack by the astonished captain it was found to measure a little more than 15 feet long and in general configuration to resemble a shark, reports Popular Mechanics Magazine. Its upper jaw was surmounted, however, by a clumsy looking horn of solid bone. A month after its destruction in a fertilizer plant, a prominent scientist notified the fishing captain that he had caught a female of the species basking shark, of which only six are known to have been taken during the history of the world's fishing industry.

Real Beer for Bavaria.

The Bavarian breweries are to resume the production of beer with an alcohone content of eight per cent according to a statement made on August 5 by the Bavarian minister of agriculture, following his return from a meeting in Berlin, where the general food situation of the nation had been discussed and certain plans for the future agreed on between the national and state authorities. He also said that the daily bread ration was to be raised from 200 grams to 300 grams per capita and that the state control of the rye market was to be dropped in October.

Fleet to Hunt Sponges.

The enormous rise in prices of sponges has induced Italian promoters to construct many new craft for sponge gathering, the first sailing forth from Sfax, the sponge market, numbers some 60 vessels this year, in contrast to 20 in previous campaigns, writes United States Consul Cookingham of Tunis. The sponges gathered during the summer campaign now in progress will, it is expected, bring at least 50 francs per kilo to the Sfax market.

Woman Water Carrier.

The "fellaha," the woman water carrier, for centuries an institution in the Holy land, is threatened with extinction because of the use of water carts growing popular through the demands of sanitary measures.

The picturesque water carrier, gliding along the streets in her colorful costume, with a vase of water balanced on her head, may soon become a memory.

New Antiseptic Discovered.

At Bellevue hospital, New York, they are using a new antiseptic, discovered by F. A. Mardon, a graduate nurse, who has been working on it for 25 years. It is called chlorsol and is similar to several other antiseptics, but has the great advantage over them of not being affected by exposure to the air.

REPUBLICAN IN POLITICS

MAGIC CHARMS FAIL

Russia is facing its fourth winter starvation and hunger since the Bolsheviki began their disastrous experiment in materialistic autocracy. The law of economic productivity, the law of cause and effect, the law of all men's longing for freedom, have each in turn been ordered by the soviet visionaries to cease operating. For a time, appearance was deceitful, and the Russian people seemed to believe Lenine and Trotsky had discovered how to outwit God and Nature.

But, the relentless consequences of mankind's ever returning efforts to substitute magic charms for solid work are at last making themselves known to the Russian people. Three winters of starvation passed and the written rules, the book of formulas, the doctrine of words instead of work, are proving unable to hold in check a fourth winter of the same terrible poverty.

Herbert Duckworth, special newspaper correspondent, was the very first reporter venturing into Russia who saw below the surface and discovered bolshevism's loosenhold. His finding started others on the way. The evidence is now becoming well nigh unanimous that Duckworth saw straight and that bolshevism can endure but little longer.

Either Lenine and Trotsky must change their methods of government or they will be thrown to earth. They would have gone before this, but that Russia has weakened almost to exhaustion by the rule of the soviets. Perhaps it is now too late for them to save their necks, however much they may bow to the coming storm. But whether they survive or no, the soviet system of autocracy is doomed.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Every Sunday some millions of little folks--and adults, too, for that matter all over the Christian world, meet in churches of some kind, sing "Showers of Blessings" and the like, recite a lesson from the scriptures, and then, maybe---stay for church. The Sunday school is popular--church with the sermon left out, as some one has described it.

One likes to mull over the beginning of the Sunday School. Its "invention" was Robert Raikes, and, in 1812, he lived in the little English town of Gloucester. Raikes came out of his home on a bright Sunday morning, only to see the town ragamuffins fighting and quarreling about the village well curb.

Raikes, on the spot, started the first Sunday school. He took the boys across the way to his home. Ragged they were and other decent places were closed to them. But Raikes took them in, and taught them. And on the next Sunday there were more boys. And the idea of the free Sunday school spread from one English town to another, and into France across the channel, and into Germany, and leaped the seas to America.

Now the story of the Bible is told in every civilized country in the world on every country in the world on every Sunday of the year without money and without price. Raikes' effort has grown to be a wonderful force in guiding aright the young men of the world.

WOMEN JURORS

We shall get used to women jurors almost as easily as we have become accustomed to the idea of women participating in elections. There is no reason why women should not be jurors. We know some of them to whose judgement we would prefer to entrust our interests than we would to some men of our acquaintance.

To women, also, jury duty will come as a new and novel experience. attractive enough on that account to induce them to give the work due consideration and attention. Men are tired of jury service. They recognize it as fundamental to the operation of law and the welfare of the country. but ninety-nine out of a hundred prefer to let "George do it."

Women, we believe, will add a new dignity to the jury.

Judging by the reports of the purchasable vote in some sections, a large element of the population are celebrating Dollar Day.

Some voters don't read the papers much,but as they always mark against the first name on the alphabetical list, they have no doubt as to how to cast their suffrage.

If ball games are going to be sold out, they would better attach a coupon to each ticket and let the game go to the side that buys the most admissions.

Some folks long for the good old times when people used to vote for the side that got the most tallow candles in the windows along the parade route.

Cities are growing seven times as fast as the country, and all these people who flock into the big towns are kicking because food costs more.

Not Monkey Glands!

Something New! Sheep and Cattle Gland Substance in Tablet Form Combined With Iron

Quite often recently newspapers have reported cases of monkey gland treatment. But now it seems that another method of treating run down conditions is being used. Instead of monkey glands, people are now using gland extracts taken from healthy young sheep and cattle, prepared in tablet form with iron and other tonic ingredients and eaten as one would eat any tablet.

The reason for the benefits secured by gland extracts, according to those who have given the subject close study, is that our tiny glands govern the building-up process of the billions of cells in our bodies. When we tire easily and are weak, run down, thin, anaemic and listless, it would appear that our glands may not be secreting the proper amount of "hormones," which the new tablets attempt to supply.

This tablet containing gland extracts combined with iron and other ingredients has been formulated under the supervision of the Glandex Company, Inc., 244 West 29th St., New York, and can be procured of any druggist under the name of Glandex Compound. So confident are the manufacturers of the merit of Glandex Compound that druggists are authorized to refund the purchase price after two weeks should the results be unsatisfactory.

Note: $1,000 will be paid by the Glandex Company, Inc., to anyone proving that Glandex Compound does not contain genuine desiccated gland substance (popularly known as Gland Extracts) from sheep and cattle.

"HOW WELL YOU LOOK!"

When Your Blood is Rich and Red People Notice Your Good Health

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS HEALTH

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping Shoulders Result From Clogged Blood

If your blood is in bad shape it shows up in your looks and feeling. When your blood is rich with red corpuscles, your color is better, your lips are red, eyes wide open and bright; your good feeling shows in your actions.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality. If your vitality is low you have little power to resist disease germs. Men, women and children with rich, red blood are able to fight off the germs which bring severe illness.

When you feel run down and weak, with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-Mangan for awhile You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer because they have the same medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan---"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package. Adv.

Anyway when you buy advertised goods, you don't usually have to send home to get more money than you expected to spend.

Good many people are getting arrested for speeding and a more are getting run over by the speeders.

Talk of High Cost of Medicine

"Although I paid only $2.00 for 2 bottles of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, I wouldn't take $100 for what 2 doses have done for me. My partner also has taken a dose with wonderful results. He was threatened with an operation for stomach and bowel trouble and is sure he will be all right now. We both suffered from indigestion and bloating with gas." LAST BLOW AT CAPITALISM

Lenine's Beautiful Scheme Puts End to All Possibility of Laying Away Any Money.

Among the many strange fruits of the war is the first national legislation on record that frankly champions the Prodigal Son and makes frugality not only undesirable, but also impracticable. This law, according to recent news from Copenhagen, has been promulgated by—yes, of course—by the inspired statesmen of the Soviets.

They are issuing a new currency that's guaranteed to be specific cure for all the ills of capitalism. A different series of notes comes out each month and every series has a different color. Besides, a glorious innovation in finance is brought to pass through the proviso that every note becomes null, void, invalid and absolutely worthless at the expiration of the month for which it was emitted.

Result: The social millennium! All July wages, salary, profits or income received in pale green July currency must be paid out by July 31. It can't be exchanged after that date for the glowing pink of August's issue; and, furthermore, it will seldom be accepted at its full face value, even in July, by any concern not thoroughly sovietized. Thus all of Comrade Lenine's official, commercial, industrial or agricultural undertakings are assured of ample savings, the creation of capital becomes thenceforth impossible.—New York Evening Post.

TO WALK ACROSS COUNTRY

Famous Swiss Pedestrian Will Make Exhaustive Study of Men and Conditions in America.

Dr. Maxime Leuret the Swiss globe-trotting walker, recently arrived in this country. Dr Leuret, a graduate in medicine of the University of Berne, has trod the humble path of the pedestrian through some 31,000 miles in Europe and the two Americas, observes the Boston Transcript. Since he started his walking campaign in 1914 he has worn out over 100 stout and well-made pairs of shoes—102, to be exact.

Seeking new worlds to conquer Dr. Leuret now proposes to walk across the continent from New York to San Francisco. Moreover, it is a "pay-as-you-go" affair with the distinguished Swiss pedestrian. Starting a walking trip with all expenses paid, he is determined to learn the expenses of his transcontinental venture by such occasional and temporary jobs as may happen to turn up.

Dr. Leuret will visit and study in their homes and villages all the types that make up the great American family. He will learn by actual contact, and not by reading a geography, the country's topographical features.

Odd Beer Labels.

In certain American circles where bottled beer would readily circulate as money, if the laws were more obliging, immediate approval will greet the late achievement of an Austrian brewery.

This concern happens to be the "Krone" brewery, and that name means "crown" in German. Also the present cost of such a label as the brewery has been pasting on its bottled product is 10 Swiss centimes—approximately 2 American cents in normal times.

But the brewery is now cutting down expenses and delighting connoisseurs by decorating each quart bottle with a one-crown note at a cost of 7½ centimes.

Too Quiet.

"Enjoy your vacation?"

"Not much. Went to one of those advertised quiet little places where you can get a good rest."

"Didn't like it?"

"Not a bit. It was really quiet."

Side Whiskers in London.

The London exquisite is doing his best to cultivate side whiskers, a fashion that was somewhat frowned upon a few years ago when Lord Rocksavage championed its resurrection. But that was in the days before the war, and probably it is as a change from the regulation military mustache of the last five or six years that British young men of fashion are growing tufts of hair in front of their ears at present writing.

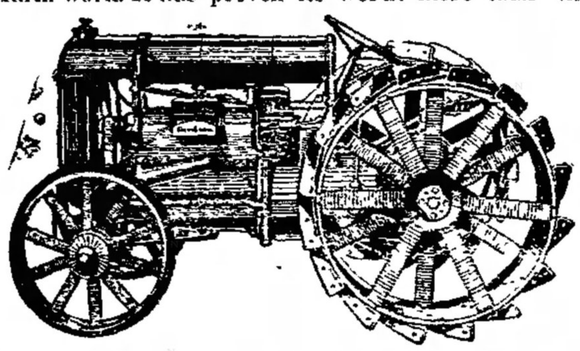
TRADE MARK

Farm Tractor

When Henry Ford set about building the Fordson tractor he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it shoul ddo. His early life on the farm gave him a deep insight into the daily life of the farmer; his mechanical genius saw the type of tractor needed. He began work on a farm tractor thirty-five years ago, and for more than twelve he experimented over more than 7,000 acres of land in different kinds of soil, with different crops.

So he built the Fordson. It is so simple that a schoolboy can operate it. It is lo win first cost. It is lowest in operating cost and Fordson parts and Fordson service are always to be had promptly from the dealer.

The Fordson is a profitable investment. It can be used every working day in the year. It is an inexpensive power plant that will lighten your farm work. It has proven its worth more than one hundred thousand farms not only in operating implements in the fields but in belt and pulley work. And it doesn't eat when idle.



Don't delay ordering your Fordson tractor. The demand is greater than the supply.

"Henrys" and "Harrys."

While I know one Harry who was so christened with disregard for the more dignified Henry and there may be other instances of the kind, there seems to be little doubt that the latter is the parent of the former name. England has always called its King Henrys "Harry." During the reign of Henry VI, who succeeded to the throne in 1422, there was a piece of money coined called the Harry noble, and in the time of Henry VIII there was a tiny coin named the Harry groat. "In Jerusalem, shall Harry die," said Henry IV.—Chicago Daily News.

Stellar Act at Olympic

The Garrison Sisters, who were presented to the Olympic theatre audience last evening in a delightful and most interesting posing act, certainly carried away honors of the evening Their act was different from any yet seen here. The poses were beautiful and the girls themselves are indeed charming. An interesting feature of their act is the flock of trained white doves, which do their part in the posing exceptionally well Miss Mildred Garrison has been proclaimed the most perfect woman in the world She has posed for leading and noted artists in the large cities Their various interpretations were well received and appreciated The show will be repeated tonight 1t

Farmer Discovered He Was Not the Only One Who Was Taking Down Good Profits.

While Tom Biggers the village blacksmith toiled over the plow share brought in by old Peter Mullins the farmer the owner told at length of the remarkable success he had had with three litters of pigs he had sold in market that day.

"Now," said old Peter "them pigs was less than eight months old and they brought me ten cents a pound or a little above $400 Why Tom, only a few years ago them some pigs would have fetched me only about half as much I tell you, Tom the farmer is gittin his fairest now."

By this time Biggers had completed the sharpening of the share and he handed it to Peter From a well worn purse old Peter took forth two dimes the usual price for such a job and dropped them into the blacksmith's hand

"See Peter" observed Biggers, "you'll have to come again I have shirts costs me five of six times for sharpening that plow."

"That's an outrage" sputtered old Peter "Why he charged me the price on me."

"To buy some of that high priced pork you were just telling me about," said Biggers, with a grin Philadelphia Ledger
